UPDATE ON THE $5,000,000 MORTIMER CASE

*Reprinted from July 1993
COWAN NEWS*

In the June 1992 edition of Cowan News we reported on the $5,000,000 award to Stephen Mortimer, 80% of which was held to be the liability of the City of London relating to building inspection and the enforcement of the building code.

We informed you that the Judgment would be appealed and we are now able to report that the Court of Appeal has set aside November 9 to 11 this year to hear this Appeal. We will discuss the result in a future Cowan News, when the decision is handed down.
