

MPP Jessica Bell, NDP University/Rosedale

Jessica Bell is the MPP for University-Rosedale and serves as the Ontario NDP critic for Transit. Prior to being elected in June 2018 she served as the founding Executive Director of TTC riders fighting to improve Toronto Transit. She's been a lecturer at Ryerson University, director of the California Food & Justice Coalition and an advocate for environmental justice. She's received several leadership awards, including Toronto Community Foundation's Vital People Award. Jessica lives in University-Rosedale with her husband and two children.

Acting Staff Sergeant Kerry Schmidt, OPP

Acting Staff Sergeant Kerry Schmidt is currently the Provincial Media Coordinator with the Ontario Provincial Police. He began his career 20 years ago as a front-line traffic enforcement officer and later specialized as a commercial vehicle inspector and collision reconstructionist. These roles sent him throughout the Greater Toronto Area attending and investigating hundreds of fatal or serious injury collisions. Kerry was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in 2011 and worked at the Port Credit Detachment before he moved into the role of media relations. He is active on social media and is often seen and heard throughout the region updating the media and public, speaking about traffic safety.

Craig Milligan PhD, Lead Engineer, Micro Traffic

Craig Milligan is the lead road safety engineer at Micro Traffic and is an international expert road safety engineer applying a proactive and safe systems approach to vision zero. He has a PhD in road safety engineering from the University of Manitoba and 15 years of professional and leadership work experience. Craig has completed more than 300 road safety projects including audits, in-service reviews, network screening studies, and video-based diagnostics powered by artificial intelligence. Craig is the immediate past chair of the Transportation Association of Canada Road Safety Standing Committee, a past board director for the Canadian Association of Road Safety Professionals, and is closely affiliated with ITE, TRB, and IRF.

Alex Legrain, Project Lead, City of Mississauga

Alex Legrain is a Project Leader on Mississauga's Transportation Planning team. He is currently leading the Changing Lanes Project, which is developing a new road classification system and Complete Street design guidelines for Mississauga. Changing Lanes is a key initiative to achieve the City's Vision Zero commitment, made through their recent Transportation Master Plan. Alex is a Registered Professional Planner with OPPI and a CIP member.

Jessica Jaremchuk, Director, Risk Management Services, Frank Cowan Company

Jessica Jaremchuk is the Director, Risk Management Services with expertise in risk consultations, and contract and legal reviews. Jessica has been with Frank Cowan Company since 2011, holding previous roles that included Regional Account Manager, Marketing and Manager, Risk Management Consulting Services. Jessica has delivered many educational seminars on various risk issues in both Ontario and the Atlantic Provinces and has been a keynote speaker at various association conferences. She has been involved in the development and implementation of the Company's Risk Management Centre of Excellence. Jessica has a BA from the University of Western Ontario and is also a graduate of the University of Western Ontario's Faculty of Law. Jessica is the Board President of the Family and Children Services of Waterloo Region's Foundation.